

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. It has improved my time at home without being disrupted by annoying unsolicited phone calls. I use to receive 12 unsolicited calls per week, and now I only receive 1 per week. Now I can focus on the care of my children without my telephone ringing continuously in the evening hours or very early morning hours on the weekends. Thank you.